VOL. III. NO. 252.

CHICAGO, FRIDAY, OCTOBER 22, 1897.

PRICE, 5 CENTS

MASTER WOODS' GOOD RIDING.

Barney Schreiber's clever lightweight, J. Woods, rode two keenly skillful races at Harlem yesterday. He had but two mounts—on Algareta and Sea Robber—and scored with both.

Sea Robber and Berclair were Schorr's representatives in the Cicero Selling Stakes. The pair had Dr. Sheppard, Sacket, Ace and Laureate for its opponents. Dr. Sheppard was the best on form and even money about him was a good price. He had Caywood up and ran a good race. The Schorr pair was always around 4 to 1 and backed stoutly for the place. Sea Robber got off in front and raced along with Dr. Sheppard to the half mile ground. There the colt was taken back to avoid too hot a pace while Berclair and Sacket took a hack at Dr. Sheppard. The Doctor shook them off on the turn. Then Master Caywood seemed to think that he had the race at his mercy. It was an error. So confident was he that he took a wide and full stretch turn with the Doctor. Master Woods seemed to see the opening and came through with a rush and the Sea Robber. At the eighth pole Dr. Sheppard faltered. Sea Robber seemed to wobble a bit, too. Berclair got to them during the hesitation and it was a rattling finish of three horses through the last sixteenth. Caywood's finish was none too vigorous. Kitley's was feeble. The California kid's was stout and well timed and Sea Robber's nose was driven in front by it. Berclair beat Dr. Sheppard the same distance for the place.

Woods rode Algareta in the three-quarters of a mile two-year-old handicap. The filly had only 100 pounds to carry and was as good as 12 to 1 in the betting. Lieber Karl was the natural choice around 6 to 5. The McGuigan party backed Bannockburn heavily at 3 to 1. Young Woods rated Algareta behind Dave Waldo and Judge Wardell to the stretch, where he began his ride on the filly. Thus he stole a march on Burns with Lieber Karl and had a commanding lead at the sixteenth pole. In consequence, Algareta won by an open length. Bannockburn, badly messed about, ran a good race and might well be considered the best horse in the race.

Enchanter, the favorite for the first race, won easily. He was the cause of a long delay and from now on his entry will be refused. Such was the official edict.

Muskalonge, at 12 to 1, cleverly won the second race, with the 6 to 5 favorite Sir Dilke, who ran a vile race was a non-profitable fourth.

Timemaker made his appearance after a long rest and with 6 to 1 and much of his speed about him took May W and Abuse into camp.

Pacemaker was in a soft spot in the closing race and won as he should have won. He stumbled and almost fell on the turn, but was so much the best that the mishap did not beat him.

Time, 24½, 36½, 49½, 1:01½.

Winner—B. g, by Carnegie—Banana.

Post 12 minutes. Start good. Won well in hand; the next four were driving to the limit. Enchanter and Chenille caused the delay at the post. Enchanter is a good horse nowadays. He could have gone to the front at any part of the route. Chenille tired badly in the stretch. She was evidently short. Mamie Callan ran an honest race. She is a useful selling plater. Majesta, none too well handled, ran a good race. Watch her in the mud. Golightly got a running start. Adowa, off poorly, ran gamely. Tern ran well and can win with light weight on a soft track. Tenole ran his race at the post.

Scratched—Confession, 97; Blue Jacket, 102; Loyaletta, 102; Robair, 105; Infelice, 97; Mon Bijou, 97; Gov. Saussenthaler, 97; St. Rupert, 97; Annie Teuton, 102; Admetus, 102; Covington, Ky, 97.

Time, 25½, 50½, 1:02½, 1:15½, 1:41½, 1:46.

Winner—B. c, 4, by Muscovy—Rebound.

Post 30 seconds. Start good. Won hand ridden; the second and third horses were under keen pressure. Muskalonge was well handled. Morrison took the short route and nursed the colt nicely. Harry Gwynn should have won. He was away on the extreme outside and had to run around his field. The colt seemed to be winning at the head of the stretch, but when pinched Kitley dropped his head and went to the whip. Queen Safie ran an improved race. Lady Dixon was short. Arrezzo seems to be of no account. Loudon will hardly do. Sir Dilke's race was far out of line, though he is a bad horse. The judges questioned Narvaez's ride, too.

Scratched—Gaston, 99; Sandoval, 103; Jersey Lad, 99; Martin K, 99; Dejure, 100; Nero, 105; Briggs, 96; Tin Cup, 96; Hessville, 96; Little Singer, 91; Lizzie Miles, 100; Ragner, 100; Vigars, 103; Lon Jones, 100; Corduroy, 100.

Time, 12, 24, 35½, 48½, 1:01, 1:14.

Winner—B. f, by Bramble—Caledonia.

Post 4 minutes. Start good. Won cleverly; the next five were hard ridden. Algareta was at her best. She was well ridden, too. She is a tough proposition to beat under light weight at a distance. Lieber Karl, outrun the first part, finished strong. The colt favors a route. Bannockburn was the best. Had he been able to get through at the head of the stretch, he could not have lost. St. Alfonses D would have been second had the boy been able to keep him straight. He is a good colt. Dave Waldo and Judge Wardell raced themselves to pieces in the first five furlongs. Waldo is a speed marvel but a coward. Graziella was almost thrown over the fence shortly after the start.

Scratched—Surmount, 90; Mordecia, 102; Gnome, 85; Presbyterian, 114; Flora Louise, 114.

Overweights—Loving Cup, 3 pounds.

*Coupled in betting.

Time, 25, 49, 1:01½, 1:15, 1:40½.

Winner—Ch. c, 3, by Pirate of Penzance—Raybelle.

Post 2 minutes. Start good. It was a long hard drive and a pretty finish between the first three. Sea Robber was best ridden. Woods handled him like a veteran. He raced with Dr Sheppard for half a mile and then dropped back to avoid the keen pace. He skinned the rails about the stretch turn and saved a lot of ground. His finish, too, was a strong one. Berclair got a trifle the worst of the start. He was half turned when the barrier arose. Riders reversed he would have won. Dr Sheppard seemed to be winning on the turn, but weakened in the closing drive. Caywood's finish on him was none too strong. Laureate seems to have stalled. He is a delicate and unreliable horse. Sacket was not fit to go the route.

Scratched—Sir Dilke, 100.

Overweights—Ace, 2 pounds.

Winner—Br. c, by Alarm—Belle Boyden. Post 5 minutes. Start fair. Won driving. Malvolio was disqualified for fouling Dr. Black in the stretch. It was a two horse race after first half mile. It appeared that one rider was as culpable as the other in the foul between the two leaders. Malvolio was most tired, however. Pontus ran a bad race. He was at sea in the peculiar going.

Winner—Ch. f, 3, by Order—Ganges II. Post 10 minutes. Start good. The first five were all driving hard. Midlight tired early. Forsythe and Oral ran in sharp contention, covering much ground. Oral's advantage at end was one of the nod, merely. El Toro and What Next showed much speed. Brighton could never get to the contenders. Henrica ran a dull race. So did Floridas. Rockwall's was below par, too.
